SHELTON SINGERS HOLD FALL CONCERT

Two concerts are scheduled for fall by the Shelton Singers, according to Syble Coats, chairman of the department of music at Shelton State Junior College. The first performance will be held on Thursday, November 4, at 10:15 a.m. and the second on Monday, November 8, at 7:30 p.m. Both performances are to be held in the music room at the junior college.

The two concerts will present selections from all periods of music and will be directed by Everett McCorvey. Van Essary and Coats will serve as accompanists for the performances. Students, faculty, and the general public are invited to attend.

DON'T FORGET DR' GUNDY'S VISIT!

On Tuesday evening, November 9, Shelton State Alumni Association will undertake its largest and most important project to date. Dr. Howard Gundy, chancellor of the state's two-year colleges, will address the association as well as students, faculty and other Shelton State supporters. The meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. in the junior college auditorium. We are hoping for a large crowd as this is Dr. Gundy's first official visit to Shelton State.

Now is the time for you to show your support for Shelton State. Plan on attending this meeting so Dr. Gundy will see how important Shelton State is to the West Alabama area.

MATH AID'S AFTER SCHOOL MATH PROGRAM BEGINS TODAY AND WILL CONTINUE OVER THE NEXT FIVE WEEKS'. SPONSORED THROUGH SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE AND UNDER THE FIRECTION OF CAMILLE COCHRANE AND GUESNA DOHRMAN', THE PROGRAM WILL RUN MONDAY - THURSDAY, 3:15-4:15 AND 4:15 - 5:15 FOR A COST OF $45 PER STUDENTS. HELP FOR GRADES 4-12 WILL BE OFFERED IN ARITHMETIC THROUGH CALCULUS.

ATTENTION COMMUNICATION MAJORS!

Mass communication, the first and basic course required of all communication majors, will be offered at Shelton State Winter quarter. This course is required by all communication majors at the University (Public relations/advertising/journalism/radio - television/speech.). If you are interested in taking this course, contact Lucy Kubiszyn.

Low cost advertising with the COURIER may be the solution to your advertising needs! If you have a business that needs an outlet of over 3300 students and 198 faculty, staff, administration members, then Shelton State Community College may be the answer for you. Contact Evelyn McDonald, 349-5259, orl Dean Montgomery, 339-3098, for more information.

DON'T FORGET – EARLY REGISTRATION FOR WINTER QUARTER begins on Wednesday, November 10., from 9 a.m. - 7 p.m. Now is the time to get the classes and instructors you want next quarter.

SWEET CHARITY TO BEGIN THURSDAY

Neil Simons "Sweet Chsrity will open Thursday, November 4, at the Bama Theatre and will continue through Saturday, November 7. Charity Hope Valentine remains one of the most infectious and loveable heroines of American musical theatre. This Tony Award-winning musical pulsates with the vibrant "Rhythm of Life" as it chronicles the loves andd dreams of a simple but charming dance hall girl whose optimism prevails over all odds. "Sweet Charity's" rousing and energetic score includes such favorites as "Big Spender," "If They Could See Me Now," and "I'm a Brass Band."

NEWS FROM THE JUNIOR COLLEGE

Everyone had the Halloween spirit Friday with the giant Halloween party planned by St udent Life Committee. The costumes for the party and contest were outstanding will "Raggedy Ann" and Shelton's own "Smurf" running around the halls. A special treat was the Halloween visit by the children from the Child Development Center..... Everyone who participated in Shelton State Days at McFarland Mall recuperating after another day-long event Saturday. A special thanks to all students and faculty who helped as well as all who came to watch! A very special "Get Well Soon" wish to Shelton Staters Mary Ann Z Thomas and Mary Julia Bailey. Both are currently in the hospital, but we hope they will be back with us soon.....For those who missed Shelton's Jazz ensemble Saturday night, you really missed a treat. They, along with the ever-fantastic Shelton Singers, will be performing during Dr. Gundy's visit on November 9.
